“Caring neighbors make good communities”

Summer is Here!

Finally, temperatures are starting to climb and our gardens are starting to sprout. Days are longer and the air is filled with sweet scents and the sounds of children. Summer is a very busy time of year for us here in Walnut Way. Our gardens require full attention and many seasonal programs are up and running. Gardens to Market teens have been selected and will begin their work soon, planting gardens around the neighborhood. Our 4H Club continues to meet on Fridays at 4:30pm. Here are a few ways your family can keep busy this summer-

Rotary Club Volunteers help out in Walnut Way gardens.

YMCA Teen Membership: $5 membership for teens 13-18.

For more information contact Dwight Goodwin at 374-9457

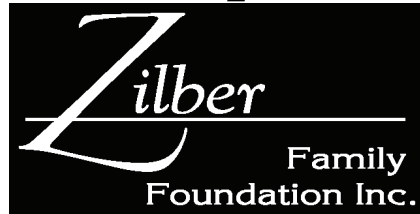

River Rhythms Free Concerts: Free summer concerts take place 6:30 - 9 p.m. Wednesdays at Pere Marquette Park

Betty Brinn Children’s Museum: WaterStone Bank & FOX 6 Neighborhood Night, free admission for everyone from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. 6/18, 7/16, 8/20 (8/20 is also Back to School event). Call 414-390-KIDS for details.

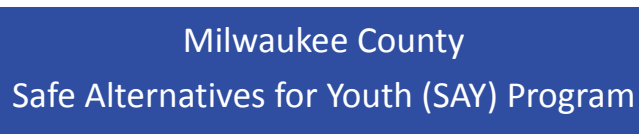

Neu Life Youth Programming: Neu Life is offering wonderful programming here in the neighborhood free for kids. For information call 933-3924

Milwaukee Public Library: The Library has great programs this summer for youth and families. Call 286-3000 for more information.

Community Meeting on Saturday, June 20th

Our next Community Meeting will be held on Saturday, June 20th at 9am in the Walnut Way Center at 2240 N. 17th St. We gather on the 3rd Saturday of the month to discuss the neighborhood, concerns and dreams, and also to celebrate accomplishments. For June, we will continue our discussion of Maranatha, LLC investment group and updates on local properties acquired. For more information call Nicole at 264-2326. There is always room for you! Please join us!

Lindsay Heights Neighborhood Initiative

Folks have been busy gathering information from residents and workgroups. The Facilitating Team will put together a Plan based on these priorities lifted during our meetings- Individual and Community Wellness, Prosperity, Proficient Youth and Families, Diverse Quality Housing and Vibrant Commercial Corridors

A public meeting will be held in the upcoming weeks to unveil the first draft of the plan. If you would like more information please call Mario at 264-2326.

Health Alliance Programs

Kimberly Njoroge and Maanaan Sabir from the Lindsay Heights Health Alliance are happy to announce upcoming Health Program events. All these events are offered free to neighbors and are held here at the Walnut Way Center. For more information call Maanaan at 264-2326. All neighbors are invited to join and learn more about useful and interesting health topics.

Lindsay Height Youth Sports

We are creating opportunities for youth sports in our neighborhood. We are pleased to introduce the Lindsay Heights Titans Tackle Football Team. If you have youth, grades 4th, 5th (past school year) interested in a tackle football program, please call Mario Hall at 264-2326. The anticipated starting time is mid August 2009. Also, youth interested in an August Lindsay Heights Summer Baseball Clinic, grades 4th-8th grade can register by calling Mario Hall at 264-2326.

Ways to Give- There are many ways to support Walnut Way activities, events, and programs. As a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, financial donations are tax deductible. We appreciate volunteer time and donations of supplies. We also accept gifts of stock and mutual fund shares. Our honey and garden products are also sold locally. To find out how you can support Walnut Way call 414-264-2326.

Walnut Way Neighbor Night

Every month Walnut Way residents are invited to gather at the Walnut Way Center for Neighbor Night. Neighbors pick a topic in advance and enjoy and potluck dinner and discussion/ presentation. For more info call 264-2326.

Walnut Way 4H Club

Walnut Way has started a 4H Club. 4H Club is a national youth development program supported by UW-Extension. The 4H's stand for Heart, Head, Hands, and Health. The Walnut Way 4H Club is open for neighborhood children (parents are welcome to join too!) ages 9 and up.
